

33 Credit Major Models

Interdisciplinary Option - You want to learn Spanish and about Hispanic cultures but you have another major - You see yourself in a career that requires cultural awareness and intercultural skills - You are interested in contemporary issues that impact Latinos in the US and international relations with the Spanish-speaking worlds - You want to communicate in Spanish in health and business professions - You want to understand your family heritage - You want to add translation as a professional skill	Language Intensive Option - You want everything listed in the interdisciplinary option and more... - You want to speak Spanish fluently - You see yourself teaching Spanish as a second language - You have interest in a career in translation and interpreting - You are passionate about languages - You dream of living in a Spanish speaking country - You want to understand your family heritage
The Spanish Major: Interdisciplinary Option Consists of a minimum of 33 credits at the 200-level or above completed with a grade of C or better in each course. I. 4-6 Required Spanish Language Courses depending on placement: 201/203 202/204 215 Intro Hispanic Literature 261 Intro Study of Language 271 Intro to translation (new) 353 Spanish for community engagement II. 5-7 Electives depending on placement; 3 courses must be at the 300-level or above Courses taught in Spanish, English, and Portuguese accepted. Up to 6 credits may be taken outside the department: seek approval from department Undergraduate Director for cognate courses from other departments such as Cognitive Science, Computer Science, English, Latino and Caribbean Studies, and Linguistics.	The Spanish Major: Language Intensive Option Consists of a minimum of 33 credits at the 200-level or above completed with a grade of C or better in each course. I. Lower Division Requirements: 200-level (6 credits) 215 Intro Hispanic Literature 261 Intro Study of Language 271 Intro to translation (new) II. Upper Division Requirements 300 Level or above (2 of the 3 areas, 6 credits) Literature and culture (3 credits) Linguistics (3 credits) Translation (3 credits) III. Capstone (400-level, 3 credits) IV. Electives (18 credits) Choose Spanish courses from 201/203 through the 400-level Up to 3 credits can be taken in Portuguese (810) Up to 3 credits can be taken in 940 courses taught in English